THE DETERIORATION OF AUSTRALIAN HORSES.

Major-General Hutton's Prophecy.

In a lecture delivered in Sydney, when New South Wales Commandant, on Horse-breeding for Military Remounts, Major-General Sir Edward Hutton made the following remarks, the value of which are now apparent:—

'It is a fact, I fear, only too patent to any careful observer, that the Australian horse is gradually deteriorating in bone, sinew, and therefore in staying power—in all those qualities which go to make a horse valuable for military purposes, and, I might add, for domestic purposes also. It is a subject which should engross the earnest attention of everyone interested in the future of the colony, namely, to consider what means should be taken to arrest the tendency to breed light, narrow, thoroughbred horses capable of nothing more useful than to win a six-furlong race. A future generation will, I fear, have serious occasion to rue the slight heed paid to the development of a breed of horses, which shall be valuable for its general qualities of utility.'

In suggestions forwarded to the Government of the day on the subject, he stated:—'I venture to think that some initial step should be taken by the New South Wales Government in concurrence with the other Australian Governments, firstly, in putting a tax on stallions, so as to restrict the breeding from weakly, useless sires; and, secondly, that the Indian Government and the Imperial Government should be approached with the view to a remount purchasing agency being established in this colony, presided over by a carefully selected Imperial officer of experience.'

A little boy, 2½ years of age, looking at his grandmother skinning a rabbit, exclaimed, 'Oh, auntie, look at granny taking off the pussy's combinations' (combinations).

WHO RULES THE TWO KWANGS?

It may be said the Viceroy does. He rules in some things—but does he do so in everything? That is just what we are trying to find out.

The inquiry is based on certain facts which may be summarised as follows: I. In the years past there has been at times, no little friction between Chinese converts and non-Christian people, and, to a less extent, between Roman Catholic and Protestant converts. This friction has not been caused by law, but by the fact that both sides have become involved, and their respective Consuls have been expected to witness all around.

II. In order to diminish the amount of this trouble, the United States Consul and the French Consul, at Canton, uniting with the Viceroy, agreed upon certain regulations for the guidance and governance of the missionaries, their assistants and their converts throughout the Two Kwangs. Each of the two Consuls was to issue a notification to his respective nationals and the Viceroy was to issue a mandatory proclamation to the same effect. One of two features of these papers were open to some question as to interpretation and application, but the spirit and purpose of the whole were matter of commendation.

Another feature was hailed as excellent to a special degree. It was the provision that, in all cases of purely civil litigation, religious teachers, whether Roman Catholic or Protestant, should carefully refrain from interposition, and should leave them to be settled by the civil magistrate himself. Copies of these proclamations came in sufficient number for general diffusion. The Viceroy's Proclamation especially was of commanding size and explicitness and was abundantly posted.

III. Certain Protestant missionaries in this region, more immediately concerned at the time, indicated their readiness to comply with the arrangement.
It was in accordance with their own ideas of ethical and political propriety, and their policy had been along that line. It was a standing prohibition to their converts not to use the name of the Church in any of their civil litigation, and they were ascending in grading against a reprehensible practice.
They sent word to the District Magistrate that it was their resolute purpose not to be drawn into a civil suit, and then pending, even though he himself regarded it as a sort of civil suit. Roman Catholic missionaries, who were pushing the claims of the other side. It was contended by us, of course, that the French ecclesiastic should also conform to an agreement made by their own Bishops. In their correspondence with the Magistrate above referred to, the Protestant missionaries concerned emphasised their insistence on necessity of both sides conforming to the regulation. But the priests did not seem so ready on their part, as we gathered from the subsequent correspondence.

IV. Matters were progressing in this way for some weeks. Letters received from the magistrates themselves abounded in grateful appreciation of the posting taken. It was certain that there would be a great diminution of ecclesiastical litigation. But the priests have been said to be not responding. All at once, word came from the Hu Chi that the Proclamation had been unceremoniously quashed by an order from the French Consul. The Viceroy's own order had been countermanded by a Consul and the Viceroy was merely acquiescing. Considering such a thing to be incredible we sent to the City to find out. The messenger brought back a transcript of the correspondence by telegraph between the Viceroy and the Consul as it had been furnished him at the Yamen. We believe this transcript to be correct. According to it, the Viceroy had wired to the Consul that the French Consul wanted the proclamation to be annulled and it was to be done. The Consul replied that the Proclamation had been out many days and had been posted. It was too late to prevent that much, but further publicity could be stopped—it was left to the Viceroy to say. The Viceroy replied that it was to be as the French Consul had determined. The next thing we heard was that proclamations already up were being torn down in all directions.

It will be seen, then, why we ask the question, "Who rules the Two Kwangs?" The American Consul was a recognised party in the agreement when it was made. He seems to have been completely ignored when it was decided by one of the other parties to have it abolished in such an arbitrary autocratic way. A parallel to such an extraordinary proceeding it would be hard to find in consular assertiveness or vice-regal submissiveness. We do well to ask, "Who rules in the Two Kwangs?" The Viceroy or the Consul of France? Who determines the measure of consideration that shall be shown to American missionaries, their own Consul, or the Consul of another nation? There is an issue raised here that must be treated by our highest diplomats and by our Home Cabinets. Now that the question is stated, we trust it will pave the way to an exhaustive inquiry into the way that religious matters and secular matters are working into each other's hands throughout the whole Province.

This ecclesiastical intermeddling in secular cases, which involves not a particle of religious intolerance, ought to be unsparingly exposed and condemned. Our authorities can easily ascertain for themselves the true state of things by inquiring at the Yamen.

Commander-in-Chief of India.
The Indian Daily News understands that Government have received official intimation that Sir Power Palmer will continue Commander-in-Chief until October next.

Memorial and Netherland Hospitals began to

The Enterprising Burglar.
A Kling constable attempted to arrest a Chinese burglar at Singapore the other.
The burglar coolly picked up the constable, who is a rather small man, threw him over his shoulder like a sack, and made off towards the river with him. When the constable saw he was powerless he blew his whistle with all his might, and this brought another policeman to his aid, and between the two of them they managed to arrest the shrewd burglar and march him off to the Station.

A New Chinese Arsenal.
Profiting by the experiences of 1900 at Tientsin, Viceroy Yuan Shih-kai has obtained the consent of the Throne to establish the chief Arsenal and small-arms and artillery foundries of the Metropolitan province of Chihli at Tschou, near the Shantung borders, instead of as formerly in Tientsin; and a secondary arsenal at Hsiku, in the latter port. It is stated that the high authorities in the North intend to construct the Tschou arsenal and foundries on a grand scale, surpassing all previous establishments of that nature in the Empire.

Officer Seriously Injured.
An Allahabad telegram dated March 13 says:—Reports have gained currency during the last few days that Captain Evans, at present employed on plague duty at Mirzapore, was attacked and done to death by villagers. It is unfortunately true that Captain Evans was attacked and seriously injured, but it is not true that he succumbed to his injuries; on the contrary, on Wednesday he was progressing favourably.
As to the cause of the attack, it is the old story of the motives of the plague officer endeavouring to persuade the people to adopt the ordinary sanitary precautions being misunderstood and of the officer getting knocked on the head for his pains.

The Bombay Cotton Industry.
Debiture holders of the Dhun Mills will get, in lieu of 11 years' interest and the original cost of a debenture of Rs. 1000 each, Rs. 228 only. The Bombay National Manufacturing Co., which is now in liquidation, was to have been sold in Bombay by public auction on the 12th inst. The Directors of the Ardyan S. & W. Co., in Alameda, have obtained an order from the Supreme Court to take it in liquidation. The Great Cotton S. & W. Co., of the original value of 8 lacs, was sold by public auction, on the 1st inst., for Rs.
294,000. The creditors of the Hope Mills could not obtain an order from the Supreme Court of Bombay to bring it to the hammer. The trustees of the Debiture Holders of the Mahalanabi S. & W. Co. have decided to sell it by public auction, in Bombay, on the 15th inst. The Muzgon S. & W. Co., and five or six others will soon follow suit.

Dr. W. A. P. Martin.
The official condolences from the Peking Government to the venerable Dr.
W. A. P. Martin has arrived. The Viceroy Chang Chih-tung to an action which does honour to himself and the Doctor. Dr.
Martin, as our readers know (says the *N. C.
Daily News*), shook the dust of this ungrateful country from his shoes and left for his home in the United States by the last Canadian Mail. It will be learnt with the sincerest pleasure that H.E. Chang Chih-tung has directed that a telegram be dispatched to meet him at Victoria, asking him to return to China and accept the post of President of the Viceroy's college at Wuchang, and adviser to all the high officials of Hupoh and Hunan. It is intended—and nothing could better show the confidence that the Hukwang Viceroy has in the ex-President of the Peking University when the capital threw out like a worn-out sponge—that the address shall be Dr. Martin's chief post, and that all the prominent officials shall go to him for counsel in any difficulty. We trust that Dr. Martin will see his way to accepting the offer which, as we have said, is most honourable to himself and to the Viceroy who makes it, and at the same time removes from the Empire generally, though not from the capital, a deep and self-imposed stigma.

PROMPT ACTION.

speedy and effective. Wholesale from A. S.

Drowning Accident.
On Sunday while bathing in a pond at the Cotton Mills at East Point, a Chinese weaver, nineteen years of age, was drowned. The body has not been recovered.

Fatality at Hanchow.
On Friday last, while the Indo-China steamer Lutony was being docked at Hanchow, the mooring rope snapped, and a young Chinaman sustained injuries from which he died at 31 Bulkeley Street, Hanchow.

The Cholera-stricken Ship.
Captain Dawson, of the Hongkong, informs us that his ship is still in quarantine here. She was formerly the City of Canton, not the City of London as stated, and flies the British flag. We have not heard of any further cases of cholera on board.

Football.
The Rugby football match between the Hongkong Football Club's 'A' team and the Navy on Saturday ended in a draw for the latter by 2 goals and 1 try (14 pts.) to 1 try, after a hard game. The Club's team was very weak, owing to several men being unable to get away from business.

Anglo-Japanese Amities in Amoy.
With reference to the assault on Englishmen in Amoy recently, we learn from a Shanghai contemporary that close enquiries were made into the affair by the Japanese Consul, with the result that one of the ringleaders was sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment and after that he will be deported to his own country, where he will be again imprisoned for two years.

The Coronation Review.
At the Coronation Naval Review, Admiral Sir Charles Frederick Hotham, K.C.B., will be in command. The Prince of Wales will hoist his flag on board the new battleship London. Efforts are being made to complete the new cruiser Good Hope, Cape Colony's gift to the mother country, as flagship of the cruiser squadron. The ships are to be illuminated at night on a uniform plan.

Fatal Duel at Paoching-fu.
A serious affair is reported by the Chin Times from Paoching-fu. Three Baghin employees of the Lohai Railway had an altercation on Sunday night last (the 24th March), which culminated in a double revolver duel. The combatants were a traffic inspector, an employee of the Locomotive Department, and an engineer. The duel was fought in deadly earnest. The traffic inspector was mortally wounded, and died not long afterwards from his injuries, while the engineer was wounded in the hand and arm. The locomotive employee, who appears to have fought the other two men in succession with such tragic effect, is now under arrest.

Departure of Mr P. A. Cox.
Among the many Hongkongites homeward bound by the P. and O. steamer Orizaba, which left on Saturday with a full complement of passengers, was Mr P. A.
Cox, of the P. and O. office here, one of the most popular all round sports in the Colony.
This year, he rode an unfortunate lot of horses at the Races, but last year it will be remembered that, with good mounts, he was one of the most successful jockeys of the Meeting. In numerous other pastimes he took an active share, but none more so than cricket and tennis. As a batsman he had a dashing style, and on more than one occasion saved the Club by his free hitting. In tennis also, he was one of the Club's best. It was, however, as the Club's Secretary that his services were most indispensable. He worked hard in organising matches and looking after the hundred-and-one things that have to be attended to by the Secretary of such a Club. His work in connection with the recent inter-colonial cricket festival was of a trying nature, especially as he was selected also as one of the Hongkong team, yet he found time to do all that had to be done, did it willingly and well, and these who were present at the Cricket Ground during the festival and saw the complementary of the arrangements will willingly grant that his could not have been better attended to. It is, therefore, gratifying to learn that his excellent services are about to be recognized by those more immediately concerned, as the following letter, which was placed in Mr Cox's hands on Saturday, will testify:—

Hongkong, 20th March.
Dear Sir,—It is my pleasing duty to inform you that the Hongkong Cricket Club are making you a small presentation on your departure for home as a memento of your past valuable services as Secretary of the Club and more particularly in regard to the onerous duties you so well filled in connection with the Cricket Inter-colonial Week in November, 1901. The Hon. Treasurer will shortly forward you a demand draft, and the members of the H.K.C.C. would like you to purchase something with it to commemorate your term of office as Secretary.—Yours very truly,

F. Maitland,
Acty. Secy. and President pro-tem, Hongkong Cricket Club.

P. A. Cox, Esq.

In asking you to publish the letter, Mr Maitland adds that the subscription lists (limited to $2 per member or naval subscriber) may be found at the H.K.
C. C. parliam. and the Hongkong Club, and that they will be closed shortly.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Shanghai and the Coronation.
The British residents in Shanghai have elected a Provisional Committee to prepare programmes of events for June 26 (Coronation Day), June 27, and June 28. Subscriptions to defray expenses are limited to 10s. 10 each.

The Chinese Customs.
The Imperial Maritime Customs have taken over the native customs at Hsichow, and as far as we can learn everything is moving on smoothly, except that the staff are complaining that the additional work gives them too much to do, and they are calling assistance.

The Commercial Treaty Negotiations.
Amongst the subjects of negotiation between the British and Chinese Commissioners on the 24th ult., according to Shanghai mandarin reports, were those relating to the prohibition of the export of rice out of the country; the coinage of silver coins, one inch in weight, for circulation; and the establishment of a new Civil Mixed Court in Shanghai to take the place of the present Mixed Court.

Bank Buildings in Peking.
One sign of a belief in the permanency of Peking is the action of the Banks, writes the Peking correspondent of the N. C. Daily News. Both the Hongkong Bank and Russo-Chinese Bank are contemplating rebuilding this spring. The Yokohama Specie Bank has opened quarters here with great éclat among the Chinese mandarins. The Deutsche Bank is putting up large buildings as a new branch in China.

Band Performance.
The following is the programme of music to be played by the Band of the Hongkong Regiment and the 11th of the Hongkong Singapore Battalion, Royal Artillery, on the Garrison Recreation Ground, to-morrow, from 5.0 p.m. to 6.30 p.m.:—

A Treaty Warning.
We understand (says the N. C. Daily News of the 28th March) that the Commercial Treaty negotiations between the British and Chinese Commission are proceeding with all the courtesy characteristic of Chinese negotiators. Sheng Kungpu really understood most of the proposals made to him by Sir James Mackay; but they have all to be explained over again to Commissioner Lu, whose mind seems to be an entire blank on commercial questions, and to whom everything that he personally does not understand is quite impossible.
We can only repeat that if the Tientsin Provisional Government is given up, there will be no commercial treaties for some years at least.

General Sir Digby Barker.
A Home paper received by yesterday's mail says:—General Sir George Digby Barker, owner of Clare Priory and Etona, arrived at the Clare Station last week on his first visit to Suffolk, after his return from his term of office as Governor of Bermuda, and received a warm welcome from a number of spectators. The Union Jack floated from the church tower, and the General's arrival was greeted by the pealing of the bells. Members of the Clare Fire Brigade lined the way from the station door to the carriage in waiting, and received a pleasant greeting and thanks for their attendance. As the carriage drove off, a few of the boys were fired from one of the Bailey Hills overlooking the station. The General, who was accompanied by one of his daughters, was met by the Rev. James Vetcher, vicar of the parish; and, after a short stay at the Vicarage, departed for Pasingford Vicarage, the residence of his brother-in-law, the
